The Da Vinci Code and the Nativity

"Because of his boundless love, Jesus became what we are that he might make us to be what he is."

– Irenaeus, Third Century

Like many people a few years ago I was hooked on the book The Da Vinci Code. I couldn't put it down and stayed up far into the night reading until it was done. It's exciting and clever. It contains just enough truth to make you wonder if it really is fiction. However, one of the main premises of the book is completely false. The author's understanding of Christian theology is weak. He claims that there was a cover-up in the early church to discredit Jesus' humanity. He claims the early church denied Jesus' humanity and voted to make Christ divine instead.

Actually the early church understood quite rightly that Jesus was human, as we can see from the above quote. And the contemporary church continues to confirm this with the Christmas story. Jesus was once a small baby in a manger in Judea 2000 years ago. He had a body, and parents, and felt cold and hunger. He was human. We tell the story every year.

The questions the early church faced were not whether or not Jesus was human, but to what extent. Was Jesus fully human with no God in him? Was he God just covered up to look like man? Was he half man and half God? Was he a second God inferior to God the Father? After years of prayer and discussion the church discerned that Jesus is paradoxically both 100% God and 100% human.

The reason this was important is because unless we believe Jesus to be completely human, his birth, death, and resurrection don't mean very much. If you are God and are only pretending to be human, then you don't really feel pain, you don't really experience life, and you don't really experience death. And if there is no death, there is no resurrection. So of course Jesus must be completely human, or the whole purpose of our faith is a sham. The Da Vinci Code was way off base.

Every Christmas we tell the story. "And the Word became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14). Jesus was born in a stable with real flesh and blood. He cried when he was hungry. He had real tears. His parents held him and cradled him. He nursed from his mother. He felt the rough fabric of his swaddling clothes. He wasn't a spirit, but a genuine baby.

And we are grateful that God loves us so much that he took on human flesh and experienced what we experience. The Lord didn't have to do this, but chose to take a path of suffering and become human. "Because of his boundless love, Jesus became what we are that he might make us to be what he is." Jesus is fully human, with all the depth and complexity that that entails, except without sin. Although it was a fun book, The Da Vinci Code is discredited by the Nativity. Christmas causes us to remember that God became human, so that humanity might be saved.

May your Christmas Season shine bright!

Faithfully yours,
Stephanie Chase Wilson
Rector

CALLING ALL SANTA'S HELPERS

St. Paul's Faire is barely behind us, and it's already time to think about CHRISTMAS KIDS! Foster Kids of the Merrimack Valley is looking forward to St. Paul's continued support in providing Christmas gifts for foster kids at their Annual Christmas Party. The foster children participating in this program range from birth to 18 years of age and are under the care of the Dept. of Children and Families in the Merrimack Valley (DCF, formerly called DSS), including Lawrence, Methuen, Andover, and North Andover. From 2008 to 2009 the number of kids in foster care in the Lawrence area rose to 866 and numbers will exceed that this year. Santa's Helpers are needed!

A list of 12 children and their wish lists of toys and needed clothing will be arriving any day now. $100 is the cost of supporting one child. Two individuals or families can choose to share the role of Santa's Helper for one child, which will reduce the cost of participating. Or, gifts or clothing will be purchased by Shopper Elf Marti for "Helpers" who prefer to make a cash donation. All gifts need to be at St. Paul's unwrapped by Saturday, Dec. 6th at the annual Candlelight Christmas Dinner. Any individual toys or clothing collected will be distributed to foster kids, also.

Contact Marti Vicens if you wish to participate this year and you'll be matched to a child soon. Call (978) 685-6016 or email wandmvicens@gmail.com.

THANK YOU CRAFTY LADIES

I want to thank all the Crafty Ladies for coming to the Monday night craft workshops. We have enjoyed your participation and fellowship, and the wonderful crafts we were able to create for the Christmas Fair Craft Table. I, also, want to extend an extra "thank you" to Anne Edwards, Margie Britton, Carole Hathaway and Bryanna Cameron for their donations of lovely handmade sewn, crocheted, knotted, and unique crafty items. We love the surprises that are added to our table just before the fair takes place!

Our Crafty Ladies include Bea Bradley, Kathy Brown, Linda Doherty, Corrine Hall, Christine Herrmann, Leona Hollins, Betty Watson and Joyce Washington.

Marlene Smith, Craft Table Chairman

Fall Yard Clean Up

Thanks to everyone who helped with our first annual fall yard clean-up on November 15th! Despite a rainy start to the day, we collected 56 (soggy) bags of leaves, cleaned out garden areas, picked up small branches, cut back perennials and otherwise put the property to bed for the winter. Paula

THANKSGIVING ALTAR

Many thanks to the children and their families who brought in fruit and vegetables for the Thanksgiving Altar. Kathy Brown and Alicia Farr put all that food together in a beautiful arrangement. Our parishioners enjoyed this wonderful array of food, while listening to Stephanie's inspirational service. On the following day, all the food was taken to Lazarus House to be dispensed for Thanksgiving dinners for the less fortunate. Thank you for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

Marlene Smith, Altar Guild Directress

Christmas Faire a Success!

In keeping with a tradition older than most can remember, the St. Paul's community has once again held our annual Christmas Fair on the first Saturday in November. This year, on November 7th, the Parish Hall and The French Memorial were magically transformed into a quaint English Village and came to life as Ye Olde Christmas Faire. Rooms were filled with beautiful hand-made crafts, decorations and accents from Christmas Past, books, fabulous home-made foods and baked goods, Nana's Attic full of treasures and a Silent Auction that was live and online for the first time. The children of the parish painted faces, played games, and sold crafts they had made themselves, and the kitchen was busy all day preparing and serving up a hearty breakfast and a delicious lunch. As we continue to live in an economically uncertain time, shoppers still came and enjoyed the festivities and many volunteers made the fundraising, community-building event yet another success.

To the dozens and dozens of people whose tireless efforts made the fair possible in ways large and small, please accept our heartfelt and sincere thanks for all that you did and for the opportunity to serve once again as your chairpersons; your ability to amaze us never ends. The true joy that comes from participating in something much larger than oneself is unlike any other, and we can't thank you enough for giving that gift to us.

Merry Christmas!

Diane & Ray Shaw

2009 Co-Chairpersons

THANK YOU FOR MAKING THE SILENT AUCTION A SUCCESS!

So many people helped make our first Online Silent Auction and the Live Auction a success this year.

- *The Silent Auction Committee for all the time and thought they gave to help plan our first Online Silent Auction, including Stephanie for skillfully keeping us on track during and following each meeting

- *The tenacious team who delivered letters to businesses, made follow-up visits and calls and collected many donations throughout August and September

- *The incredible tech team (Peter K. and Bob Z.) who developed the online auction site and data base that organized all our donations and bidders and provided a final winning bidder list minutes after the auction ended

- *The generous parishioners who just kept donating so many interesting items for the auction and then just kept bidding on them!

- *The tireless Faire Day workers who guided the bidders and entered data all day

And extra thanks to Carrie L. for solving so many computer problems and giving so much time and support, Bob Z. for endless replies to my email worries and questions, Cheryl M. for extra hours of setting up and assistance, and Willie V. for supporting me even when he didn't get dinner!

I am very grateful to all who gave the Online Auction a chance. Thank you so much. It was truly a whole church effort! I think Jane Griswold would be proud of us all!

Finance Committee News

The revenue and expense for October and the first ten months appear below. During October we received $14,935 in revenue and disbursed $17,520 in expenses. For the first ten months we have disbursed $62,295 more than we have taken in. We did not transfer any funds from our Fidelity accounts during October, but we have transferred a total of $50,000 during the first ten months.

The Finance Committee celebrates our wonderful fair and appreciates all those who contributed so much to the event's success. It is a fun day at St. Paul's and becomes extra special when the day is a financial success as well. Thank you one and all!

An internal audit committee has been hard at work to complete a review of the financial records of the parish for the year 2008. Committee members, Tom Coppa, Chris Herrmann and Ken Veznaian along with Treasurer Peter Kalafarski have been analyzing the numbers and questioning the processes in place. They will be presenting a report of their findings to the Vestry. The parish is lucky to have such conscientious committee members to complete this very important task. Thank you, Tom, Chris, Ken and Peter.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions for the Finance Committee please contact Jean Kookan.

Education for Ministry (EFM)

Wanted: Two or more "amateur" theologians interested in studying Scripture, Church history, and theology with a group of prayerful, thoughtful, and insightful fellow seekers.

Benefits: Challenging study, shared wisdom, thoughtful prayer, much laughter, and the loving support of a small spiritual community.

Education for Ministry (EFM) is an ecumenical distance-learning theological education program of the School of Theology, University of the South, Sewanee, TN. The purpose of this program is to provide a comprehensive theological education in a way that is accessible to lay people and that empowers them to understand their role as part of the "priesthood of all believers." This four-year program consists of a year on the Hebrew Scripture (Old Testament), a year on the New Testament, a year on church history, and a year on Christian theology. Students may commit to one year of study at a time, or choose to follow the course for the entire four years.

EFM is more than a program of scripture and theological study. Through spiritual autobiographies and theological reflection on culture, tradition, and the group members' own experiences and insights, "EFM'rs" examine and experience their daily lives as ministry. The group members teach each other by engaging in discussion about the texts and their experiences. Participating in this remarkable program can be a life-changing experience.

This is a tuition-based program ($340.00, which includes textbooks) for which Continuing Education credits can be obtained. Scholarships are available in cases of financial need. If you are interested in learning more about this opportunity for adult education and formation, contact Rosemarie Buxton at 978-683-7055 or rosebuxton@yahoo.com.
